

CHARACTER TYPES

THE LAST QUESTION

ENGINEER

The most ubiquitous type in this world, it has lost its original meaning. It is an accepted and expected aspiration for many children.

- Big picture
- Leading Groups
- Philanderer

CHOSEN

A derogatory term for those who make their living in the dark corners of off-world bases. Routinely ignored, they have their own rules.

- Cunning
- Self-involved
- Unusual weapons

HOUSTON

Another lost term, those who don't make it as engineers often use their knowledge to join the support teams across the solar system.

- Following orders
- Call-center patience
- Referencing materials

SOLAR

The technicians; this term arose in the late 2050s as the Earth moved to its solar-based power system developed by Multivac.

- Transportation
- Cosmic meteorology
- Mixing drinks

NAUGHT

Named after the astronauts and cosmonauts of yore, the "gh" was added when space-walking became janitorial, not exploratory.

- 0G and 1G maneuvering
- Cleaning up
- Routine

BOUND

For those born on Earth, there is a lot of pride but no prosperity. Even those with success find it hard to fit in off-world.

- Pride
- Flora and Fauna
- Traditional weapons